

It's TUESDAY in Town.

Here's what's in store for today.

- Harry Potter Turkey has conjured up Butterball Beer Pudding and Pumpkin Pasties. Don't be a turkey, try some.
- Did you find the turkey yesterday? No? Well, you get a chance every day! Locate a turkey hidden in the staff area; when you find it, write its location and your name on a slip of paper. Enter your slip to win a chance at a daily prize.
- How many turkey toes can you count in the jar? Yep, we've added yet another game to expand your chances at winning one of our awesome prizes!
- Let your CREATIVITY be known. Write a limerick and post it. It's a limerick challenge and we'll be judging on how much the limerick either makes us laugh or cry, or both!
